

SL: About your X

Hey [name],

Noticed you X has not been getting the attention it deserves which can lead to a lot of missed clients as you are losing brand exposure.

With X being one of the leading social media platforms you cannot afford to miss out on the opportunity of getting more engagement & brand exposure.

I can write a few tweets that will increase the engagement your X gets and start an upward spiral that will increase your agency's exposure.

Does this sound like something you would be interested in?
