

CALLS TO THE HOUSE EDUCATION COMMITTEE ON HB64

Campaign Expires 11:00 a.m. Central Time on Mar. 11, 2025

Call each member of the committee and leave a message.

Call Rep. William Slater (Trousdale and Sumner Counties) at 615-741-2534 and say: Representative Slater, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Scott Cepicky (Maury County) at 615-741-3005 and say: Representative Cepicky, this is _____ from _____. Thank you for raising tough questions on House Bill 64 in the Education Administration Subcommittee two weeks ago. I hope you will continue to press for details on the financial impact to the private sector.

Call Rep. Ronnie Glynn (Montgomery County) at 615-741-2043 and say: Representative Glynn, this is _____ from _____. Thank you for speaking up against House Bill 64 in the subcommittee. It means a lot to me.

Call Rep. Chris Hurt (Crocket, Lauderdale, Gibson, and Obion Counties) at 615-741-2134 and say: Representative Hurt, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Jay Reedy (Benton, Houston, Humphreys, Stewart, and Henry Counties) at 615-741-7098 and say: Representative Reedy, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Mark White (Shelby County) at 615-741-4415 and say: Representative White, this is _____ from _____. Thank you for trying to get more time to discuss HB64 when it was in the subcommittee. Too many questions about costs to the private sector went insufficiently answered. Please, continue to press for details on Tuesday in the Education Committee.

Call Rep. Kevin Raper (Bradley County) at 615-741-1350 and say: Representative Raper, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Jody Barrett (Hickman, Lewis, and Dickson Counties) at 615-741-3513 and say: Representative Barrett, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Charlie Baum (Rutherford County) at 615-741-6849 and say: Representative Baum, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Yusuf Hakeem (Hamilton County) at 615-741-2702 and say: Representative Hakeem, this is _____ from _____. Thank you for speaking up for the LGBTQ+ community. I hope you will vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. It means a lot to me.

Call Rep. Kirk Haston (Chester, Decatur, Perry, Hardin, and Henderson Counties) at 615-741-0750 and say: Representative Haston, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Tim Hicks (Washington County) at 615-741-1717 and say: Representative Hicks, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Gloria Johnson (Knox County) at 615-741-2031 and say: Representative Johnson, this is _____ from _____. Thank you for speaking up for the LGBTQ+ community. I hope you will vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. It means a lot to me.

Call Rep. Renea Jones (Unicoi and Carter Counties) at 615-741-7450 and say: Representative Jones, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Aron Maberry (Montgomery County) at 615-741-4341 and say: Representative Maberry, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Sam McKenzie (Knox County) at 615-741-0768 and say: Representative McKenzie, this is _____ from _____. Thank you for speaking up for the LGBTQ+ community. I hope you will vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. It means a lot to me.

Call Rep. Lee Reeves (Williamson County) at 615-741-1864 and say: Representative Reeves, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.

Call Rep. Robert Stevens (Rutherford County) at 615-741-3830 and say: Representative Stevens, this is _____ from _____. I urge you to vote NO on House Bill 64 on Tuesday in the Education Committee. State laws that exclude transgender students have increased suicide attempts. Over 25% of transgender students in schools with restroom exclusions report sexual assault, though there is no evidence they pose a danger to other students. This bill also represents a major imposition of government control over private residential schools, colleges, and camps. Has the sponsor consulted these private entities about their views on the bill? Do we have answers about the cost to private entities, an issue raised in the subcommittee? Please, learn the facts and vote NO.