II. Pledge of Commitment

In our desire to serve the Parliamentary League of Students in Politics, we shall observe decency, honesty, and fair play during the campaign period. Towards that end, we shall:

1. Conduct our campaign openly and publicly, discuss the issues as we see them, present our plans and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticize the plans and policies of our opponents which merit such criticism;
2. Not use or permit any appeal to prejudice based upon race, sex, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, physical health status, or age;
3. Not use or permit any dishonest or unethical practice which tends to corrupt or undermine our election system, or which hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters, including acts intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from voting;
4. Not use our power or authority to coerce election help or campaign contributions for ourselves or any other candidates from anyone under our supervision;
5. Defend and uphold the rights of every voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process;
6. Be primarily concerned with the overall ability of all the candidates to perform the task of the office competently and effectively. We shall not make any statements concerning the personal character or traits of opposing candidates which have no bearing upon the candidates' ability to perform the position being sought; and
7. Abide by the Omnibus Election Code of the Parliamentary League of Students in Politics to ensure the orderly conduct of the 2025 Parliamentary Elections.

III. Seal of Commitment

We, the undersigned, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge ourselves to conduct our campaign following the above principles and practices.
