Dear Parents and Guardians:

ACES Boys Flag Football season is almost here! Tryouts, home games, and most practices will be at Founders Park. Practices will be from 4:00 PM-5:30 PM. Students participating on the ACES Boys Flag Football Team must make arrangements to travel from school to Founders Park. Students who do not have transportation provided for them have the option of walking from school to Founders Park immediately after school. Students who do not choose to walk will be expected to arrive on time for practices and games. Please sign this form below indicating you give permission for your child to walk from ACES to Founders Park for all practices and home games.

Your signature below indicates that you are aware that NO ADULT supervision will be provided as your child walks to the park for practice/games.

For away games, students will be leaving school early and traveling by bus to reach their game destination. Please understand that all students are responsible to complete any make-up work and assignments. Thank you for your understanding in this matter. If you have any questions please contact me at dkrumrie@aventuracharter.org.

Thank You,

Donald Krumrie
Athletic Director
