General Discussion:

Geecon 23-26 Oct - (Karol, Manas) - https://2022.geecon.cz/speakers/?id=732 ("Pyrsia - Trusted Decentralized Package Network")
   a. Went well and well attended. Recordings coming soon.
   b. Why would you run your own node? Need answer for this.
   c. How is JFrog associated with Pyrsia?
   d. Non-technical questions harder than the technical questions
   e. Hope to have a few blockchain developers join
   f. Incorporate Xray data into Pyrsia? Switch from Sonar Nexus to Pyrsia for security.
   g. Folks are trying to compare Artifactory to Pyrsia.

      h.   Who is going to control Authorized Nodes?
      i.   Demos too long, target 3-4 mins
      j.   Explaining Pyrsia is challenging.
           -    May need to share the standard presentation from Steve Chin and Sudhindra Rao. with folks doing talks.

KubeCon
- Well received
- Need to find session recordings

Hunt down the Geecon, libp2p, Kubecon, etc recording for website/youtube.

  - AllThingsOpen Nov 2022
  - Scale19X - Jul 21, 2022 - Gets a lot of developers attending so could be the right place for Pyrsia
- US/DHS/SVIP Funding Opportunity >> Software Supply Chain Visibility Tools
  - The U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Science and Technology Directorate (S&T) Silicon Valley Innovation Program (SVIP), on behalf of DHS Operational Components, invests in startup companies from across the nation and around the world to adapt, develop and harness cutting-edge capabilities that are commercially sustainable while simultaneously meeting the needs of DHS Operational Components and Programs.
  - This is a new SVIP solicitation to help improve the transparency of the software supply chain as a key component to help ensure the security of critical infrastructure systems. In partnership with the DHS Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA), this SVIP Software Supply Chain Visibility Tools solicitation is seeking technical capabilities to help secure the software that individuals and organizations rely upon for essential services, including communications, finance, transportation, and energy.
  - This funding opportunity, which seeks both open-source software libraries and value-added tooling, is intended to energize the market to provide Software Bill of Materials (SBOM) based capabilities for stakeholders within the enterprise, system administrator and software developer communities. A Software Bill of Materials (SBOM) "is a formal, machine-readable inventory of software components and dependencies, information about those components, and their hierarchical relationships."

- ○ Applications are required to support the first technical topic area (TTA) listed below, and one or more of the additional TTAs:
    - ■ [REQUIRED] Foundational Open-Source Libraries
    - ■ Multi-format SBOM Translator
    - ■ Software Component Identifier Translator
    - ■ Automated SBOM Generation
    - ■ SBOM Enabled Vulnerability Visualization
    - ■ SBOM Enabled Interactive Development Environment (IDE) Plug-in
    - ■ SBOM Enabled Security Incident and Event Management (SIEM) Plug-in
    - ■ The solicitation deadline is October 3, 2022 and a Virtual Industry Day has been scheduled for July 14, 22 for technology startups to learn more about this solicitation, the operational need, and program eligibility.
    - ■ More information @ https://go.usa.gov/xJYgF

  - DEV & GitHub to Donate Money to Girls Who Code with #SheCoded Event

    DEV's annual celebration of International Women's Day (March 8th) is back this year and more impactful than ever. As usual, "Nevertheless, SheCoded" invites women, non-binary folks, and the allies supporting them to publish a story about the gender gap in tech and their experiences with it on DEV by March 9th. This year*, DEV and GitHub are partnering up to donate $20 for every post received to Girls Who Code — a nonprofit dedicated to creating technical opportunities for women and girls in technology. We hope to see a #SheCoded, #TheyCoded, and/or #SheCodedAlly post from you this year and look forward to donating to a great cause in exchange! Learn more about SheCoded here and join us on DEV on March 8th to round out the celebration.

  - New look and feel updates - as per dates above
- Find Meetup/Forums to talk about Pyrsia
  - Mark Grand would love to talk about some of the tech
  - Baruch Sadogursky discussing the problems we are trying to solve
- Do we need to start seeding StackOverflow discussions?
  - Timing is important - once we have Pyrsia MVP this will be start becoming useful/important
- Google Summer of Code organization setup is needed. Who will take this on?
  - Feb 7 submit applications

- - - What's needed? - Lori Lorusso
    - Do we have resources on the team to make this happen?

  - Call for Papers
    - CDCon 2022 (Sudhindra)
    - SupplyChainCon 2022
    - ContainerCon 2022
    - BlueTeamCon 2022 (Sudhindra)

  - Trademark Updates??? - Stephen is working with David, Brian, LFX to get that moving
    - Email thread in progress
    - Work with TAC to becoming incubating project
    - Bring it up again at the next TAC - Sudhindra Rao
  - Youtube and Pyrsia Calendar
    - Using the PyrsiaOSS channel instead of OpenSSF. Easier to update due to permissions.
    - Pyrsia Calendar events should have the Pyrsia Google Group as the invitee. This will send out invites and updates automatically.
    - OpenSSF Calendar has a meeting link but should not have Pyrsia Google Group as an invitee. This is to prevent duplicate invites from being sent.
      - Fix the zoom links in the invite - Sudhindra Rao - DONE
    - Using OpenSSF Zoom account. Steve Taylor is downloading, doing a quick cleanup (adding intro and close). Then posting to PyrsiaOSS channel.
      - Write this down so that other people on the team can take this up if Steve Taylor is not available
    - Need to add Daily Standup to the OpenSSF calendar (Sudhindra and Jen @ LF)
      - Skip the OpenSSF calendar. Let the community engage with us during Pyrsia meetings and then join the team instead of creating noise for them.
    - What is the onboarding process?
      - Need to work on the flow and making it easy for people to get started
      - 336 on list of Rust Projects
      - How can anyone on the internet contribute/engage?
