ToS:

- As the artist I can refuse certain requests.

- Half of the discussed price must be paid before I start working on the product.

- Deadlines must be discussed before order is placed as final.

- Good manners expected from both parties.

- If you want to use my art for commercial purposes we can discuss a price for the licence.

- If commission cannot be completed within the discussed deadline, the customer has a right to get a refund (The amount of the refund depends on the amount of work that has already been done). Otherwise refunds must be discussed with Suzu Sawara before approval.

- If a refund is issued, the customer will not receive the product that is refunded. If the product was already received, the customer will not have a right to use the refunded product.

- If the product was only partially refunded, the customer has originally discussed rights for the partial product.
