Name: Aysel
Age: 5 months
Gender: Female
Breed: Sultan
Description: Pure white Sultan pullet.
Personality: Aysel certainly takes quite a bit of pride in her appearance, and never lets anyone touch her fluffy crest or ruffle her (still growing) feathers. She may be young, but Aysel is feisty. She is always determined to get what she wants, whether it's the best place on the roosting bar, or the most mealworms.
Favorite Hen/Roo: Will decide once more people join the role play.
Chicks (if hen): None
Other: Aysel has not begun laying yet, and has no desire to (despite the fact that it is inevitable.) In fact, she scoffs at the idea, believing it is silly to waste time sitting in a dark nest box when one could be spending quality time outdoors.

Favorite Hen/Roo: N/A

Parents: Adopted by Snowy, thought by the flock to be a chick from Snowy and Oreo. She was actually put there secretly by the keeper when Snowy was off the nest, as one of the other eggs had stopped developing. Keeper sneakily put her egg in, and nobody in the flock questions it as the feather coloring is close enough for nobody to notice, which was pretty lucky. Favorite treat: Lettuce

Creator: SirBrookalasBrooks

Name: Eeny

Age: 2 weeks

Gender: Male

Breed: Buff Orp

Description: Whitey, yellow

Personality: Really cheerful all the time to other hens and pullets, only one negative pullet stops him being cheerful, and that's his sister Meeny . Has a lot of fights with other cocks the same age as him. was mean to his brother mo and mo was separated by the keeper.(or was he not?) Other than that he is always trying to make his friends happy and is looking on the bright side of things a lot of the time. ( so basically he's two faced 🤪 )

Turkeys: 2

Creator: orloff

Name: Spangle

Age: 6 years

Gender: M

Breed: Royal Palm turkey

Description: A regular Royal Palm turkey color: white with black accents.

Personality: Spangle is rather eccentric, not the friendliest bird to be around if he does not want company. The chickens know not to wander too close to him, for he is very large and could easily injure any of them. In general, they do not like his personality, but sometimes they have to interact with him anyways (maybe because of the coyote?) Though he may appear gruff, Spangle is actually quite thoughtful and wise, and he is sometimes looked to for advice by the other birds. If he does not have an answer for them, he will try to find one before telling them he doesn't know.

Favorite Hen/Roo: (No other turkeys have been created yet)

Chicks (if hen): N/A

Other:

--If no one creates any turkey hens, they can just be there in the background.

--Unfortunately, even turkeys are not invincible to predators. Coyotes can kill turkeys too.

--The keeper does not come near Spangle when they think he is in a bad mood.

Creator: Three Little Bunnies

Name: Rosemary Daffodil

Age: 2

Gender: F

Breed: Blue Slate Turkey

Description: Blue turkey

Personality: RD is a very friendly turkey. She loves all of the flock, especially the chicks and roosters. She thinks she is a chicken and is intimidated by Spangle, but looks up to him.

Favorite Hen/Roo:

Chicks (if hen): She is kind of an aunt to all the chicks, but has none of her own. She never even considered that possibility!

Other: RD was named by the Keeper's daughters who were three and five at the time. She is very friendly with humans since she was the only turkey poult who survived, as they were shipped in the dead of winter.
