Rewrite the Truth

An objective summary is free of any bias/opinion; it is just the facts. Depending on whose point of view you are examining, the participants in an event will have different accounts. They are not necessarily lying but they are having their own thoughts, reactions and feelings to the event.

Complete the box below with a 5-7 sentence description from different people's points of view.

Kevin's point of view:

Objective Point of View (Dean's Office Report):

Bob was sent out of Ms. Andrew's class. He was holding a pencil in his hand at 3:05pm. At 3:15pm the pencil was sticking out of another student, Kevin's eyeball. Bob was expelled from Western High School for allegedly stabbing another student. Kevin has been reported twice (from other students) for bullying Bob.

Bob's point of view:

Refer back to Chapter 8 to respond to the questions.

How could the conversation between “Rudolf” and Mrs. Morrow really be about Holden?

In your opinion, is Mrs. Morrow’s concern for her own son and “Rudolf” genuine or “phony”? Explain.

What do you think about Holden’s actions and behaviors? Is he a “phony”? Why or why not?
