

Subject: New opportunity to strengthen your relationship

Dear Friends,

As a pastoral and leadership team we want to find more ways to enrich your lives and relationships during this time of heightened anxiety and uncertainty. We realize couples are spending a lot of time together. This is a great time to invest in your relationship!

Check out the Couple Checkup inventory -- it's an online assessment tool you both complete that provides a "snapshot" of your relationship health and shows strength and growth areas. It includes a downloadable discussion guide to help you talk through these areas and make improvements.

We hope this is helpful.

Blessings,
