Welcome back to school, Virginia world language educators! Earn 3 graduate-level credits or 45 professional development hours in one of our courses this fall. Our flexible, instructor-led online courses are designed to help you grow professionally, whether you're earning graduate-level credit for salary advancement (Master's +15, Master's +30), working toward certification/licensure, or renewing your teaching license or certificate with professional development hours. You'll learn alongside a supportive network of world language educators, guided by an experienced instructor every step of the way.

What to expect:

- 6-week online experience: thoughtfully structured with flexibility in mind for busy educators.
- Fully asynchronous: complete coursework on your schedule—no required live sessions for most courses.
Note: Advanced Spanish Conversation & Culture for Teachers and Advanced French Conversation & Culture for Teachers include required weekly live virtual sessions.
- Paced for you: move through each weekly module at a time that works best for your routine.
- Collaborative learning: engage in meaningful discussions and receive personalized feedback from your instructor and peers.
- Optional office hours: drop in for extra guidance, support, or clarification.

 Explore the online, affordable Master of Education (M.Ed.) with World Language Emphasis in your target language through CSU Pueblo in partnership with Idioma Education & Consulting! Click here to learn more!

About our partnership:

Idioma Education & Consulting is proud to partner with the Foreign Language Association of Virginia (FLAVA) to strengthen professional learning opportunities for world language educators across the state. This partnership reflects our shared dedication to advancing language education by providing Virginia teachers with the tools, inspiration, and community they need to grow in their practice and help students achieve linguistic and cultural proficiency.
