Portfolio Access

This Google Doc will be used to link to your ELA portfolios. Not only will your portfolios serve as a place to turn in your work, they will also serve as a resource for you as you continue through the program and as you move out into the field. You provided to help you u will add to your portfolio in all of your ELA methods courses. To begin, find your name in the chart below and link it to your portfolio. A sample portfolio has been provided to visualize what this might look like.

Weekly Reading Tracker

To help us keep track of the books being read this semester, please enter the books you are reading each week on this spreadsheet. This will allow others to remember books they would like to read in the future, and it will also assist us in the latter half of the semester.
