

Visibility & Invisibility in Short Texts: CCC Reflection

Reflect on your lowest CCC score from our unit so far. I have provided you a rubric score, but no written feedback at this time. Review your writing and your score to answer the questions thoroughly, thoughtfully, and honestly.

1. Claim: What rubric score did you receive on your claim section? Explain why this was your score using language from the rubric:

- a. If your score is less than a three, rewrite a claim below:

- b. If your score is a three, rewrite a claim to work toward a four:

2. Cite: What rubric score did you receive on your cite section? Explain why this was your score using language from the rubric:

- a. If your score is less than a four, provide a new piece of textual evidence you could use to support your claim (this can be a direct quote or a description of a specific moment):

3. Clarify: What rubric score did you receive on your clarify section? Explain why this was your score using language from the rubric:

If your score is less than a four, answer the questions below:

- a. Why is your textual evidence important to the story as a whole?

- b. If you used a direct quote, why do you think the author wrote it in this way?

- c. Does the evidence use specific literary or structural elements to add to their writing? If so, what does it add? (Use your unit tool sheet in your binder.)

- d. How does this evidence relate to your selected theme? (Write this using words and ideas specifically from the theme statement.)
