

Campus Librarian Network workshop

The Museum of Jewish Heritage

December 10th, 2019

9:00 AM - 3:30 PM

Workshop Facilitator(s): Russell West

Category: Campus Librarians Network (CLN)

Expected Attendees: Librarians

Summary of Objectives

to build their capacity as instructional leaders; to strengthen their ability to advocate and use library data; to promote 21st century technology; to share best practices and resources around curriculum support; and to work to ensure students are acquiring the information literacy skills necessary to be successful in school, college and career.

SLIDES (book discussion and announcements)

Agenda:

Agenda provided by the Museum of Jewish Heritage

Timeslot	Item
9:00	Welcome and Introduction https://education.mjhnyc.org/ also at holocaustcurriculum.nyc
9:30	Self-Guided Tour: Auschwitz. Not long ago. Not far away Note: NYC public/charter school groups can visit the museum with no charge but reservations required. For info, https://mjhnyc.org/visitor-information/school-youth-groups/
11:00	Workshop: Every Object Tells a Story Taken from Lesson Six, Experiences of Jewish Children and Teens
12:00	Lunch
12:45	Book Discussion: How to Be an Antiracist
1:45	Holocaust Survivor Testimony
3:00	Announcements and Closing - Collaboration Grant (due 12/13 for priority consideration) - New Campus Librarian's Handbook - We discuss chapters 7-11 of How to Be an Antiracist at our January workshop - NEXT MEETING: Thursday, January 23rd at Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture,

	515 Malcolm X Blvd, New York, NY 10037 ○ 2/3 trains to 135th Street ● Donate book distribution
3:30	Adjourn

Notes: