

Link to EVER DIE

Denise Marsa Aims for 9th UK Music Week Top 10 with New Anthem of Strength, Unity, and Resilience Just in Time for Pride Month

New York, NY – June 8, 2026 — With a growing international audience and consistent chart momentum in the UK, Marsa has carved out a unique space in the commercial pop dance world, one where community, resilience, and emotional truth are as central as the beat itself. Her latest release EVER DIE is a call to connection, an anthem of endurance, and a reminder that even in the most challenging times, there is an opportunity to evolve to become more aware, more compassionate, and more unified.

Following an extraordinary run of eight Top 10 hits on the UK Music Week Commercial Pop Dance Chart the team return with her next release EVER DIE which is an emotionally charged, high-energy anthem poised to become the team's ninth chart success. Known for blending infectious dance production with storytelling narration, Marsa's latest track continues her signature mission: creating music that moves both the body and the spirit. At a time when global uncertainty and social tension are at an all-time high, her new release delivers a clear message—we are stronger together, and we are not breaking.

About Denise Marsa

Denise Marsa is a self-taught keyboardist and internationally recognized recording artist with multiple Top 10 hits on the UK Music Week Commercial Pop Dance Charts since 2024. Her work is known for fusing contemporary dance production with indie pop with messages of empowerment, resilience, and human connection. Marsa also runs KeyMedia Public Relations and her indie record label KeyMedia Group, which she started in 1998 with the self-produced debut album SELF.

Contact: Melissa Nastasi: keymediapublicrelations@gmail.com