

11B 1.5 Healthy Relationships:

PHASE OVERVIEW

In this phase, pairs will launch their relationships and begin getting to know one another. Pairs will explore similarities and differences, make connections, and share experiences that will deepen their relationship. Pairs will reach a basic understanding of each other's interests, backgrounds, motivation, and lives.

LESSON OBJECTIVE

Students will be able to understand the components of a healthy relationship and think about how they can build one with their mentor.

PURPOSE

This lesson will explicitly teach mentees about what a healthy relationship looks like and what goes into maintaining one. Students will be given scenarios to categorize as healthy or unhealthy. This will help them build their relationship with their mentor and be able to identify healthy relationships in their personal lives.

AGENDA

5 min	Do Now: Mentor Response
23 min	Learn and Engage: Relationship Scenarios
12 min	Mentor Connection

KEY TAKEAWAY

A healthy relationship takes effort from all people involved and requires honesty and open communication. In order to have a healthy relationship with my mentor, I need to be open and honest about my goals, interests, and needs.

FACILITATOR NOTES

Keep in mind that the Do-Now message simply serves as a class “start-up.” It is OK if students are not able to fully respond. Please move on after the 5 minutes allotted for the Do-Now so you have enough time to run the class lesson. Students will have the opportunity to write at the end of class as well.

Do Now: Mentor Response		Notes:
Students will read their mentor's message and respond. This routine will help mentees understand that they must be consistent in their responses.
Slide 2: 5 min	TALKING POINTS Log into your Platform account. Read your mentor's message and respond.

Learn and Engage: Relationship Scenarios		Notes:
In this activity, students will work in pairs to identify relationship scenarios as being either "healthy" or "unhealthy." Students must work together to agree on each scenario.
Slide 3: 1 min	Have a student read the key takeaway.
Slide 4: 3 min	TALKING POINTS All relationships exist on a spectrum of health. This means that relationships have the potential to be healthy or unhealthy based on the behaviors that you and the other person display. Let's start by identifying the characteristics of a healthy relationship. Have a student read the characteristics of a healthy relationship. Let's now read through the characteristics of an unhealthy relationship. Have a student read the characteristics of an unhealthy relationship. We must make a conscious effort to maintain healthy relationships. It can be easy to fall into unhealthy patterns of behavior.
Slide 5: 15 min total (10 min activity) (5 min share out)	TALKING POINTS Today, we are going to be completing an activity to see how well we can identify healthy and unhealthy relationships. This will help you identify how to maintain a healthy relationship with, not only your peers, but your mentor as well. In pairs, you will be given relationship scenarios. You will have to check-mark if each relationship is "healthy" or "unhealthy." You must both come to an agreement for each statement. Be ready to share your choices and reasoning. Bring the class back together after 10 minutes and do a whole class share out.

Slide 6: 4 min	STUDENT DISCUSSION As we previously discussed, you must make the conscious effort to maintain healthy relationships. Let's think about the steps we can take to create and maintain a healthy relationship with our mentors.
Slide 7: Mentor Connection	Have students write to their mentors.
Slide 8: Extend	If you have additional time remaining, consider asking students what new information they have learned from their mentor's message.

Mentor Connection

Pair Prompt:

Healthy relationships take time and effort! Share your thoughts on what trust, care, and support should look like in a mentor-mentee relationship. Let's set the foundation for success!

Self-Reflection Prompt (for unmatched students):

Healthy relationships take time and effort! Reflect on what a healthy relationship looks like for you. Think about things like what makes you feel trust, care, and support.
