

NORTHSHORE SCHOOLS

Discovering Your Dreams

Spanish- AP/IB SL/HL Year 2

World Languages Departmental “Why” Statement:

The World Languages department fosters the development of global citizens that are empathetic, collaborative, respectful of self and others as they contribute positively to the world communities through their acceptance and understanding of different cultures and perspectives.

Advanced Placement & International Baccalaureate:

Being a Global Citizen is a passport for the mind.

Twitter: @Shore-WL_ENL, @drtitone

Shared Valued Outcome of Focus	Communicators articulate thoughts, feelings, information and ideas in a variety of forms and contexts. Communication Skills Committed Individuals exhibit dispositions and “habits of mind” that lead to growth in self and concern for others Committed Individuals Skills
National and State Learning Standards	ACTFL National Standards (American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages) New York State World Languages Standards AP Spanish Language and Culture Course and Exam Description, Effective 2020 2021 AP Course Overview - AP Spanish Language and Culture
Course Understandings	• Our culture gives us a unique perspective • We can make connections between different subjects/themes. • I can think of different cultures with an open mind. • I can use the knowledge that I have about other cultures to better understand other people.
Course Essential Questions	• In what way is our perspective determined by our belonging to a particular culture? • How are we aware of the impact that our culture has over what we believe or what we know? • Does anything exist that is true for all cultures?
Key Units and Topics	Experiences • Leisure/Travel Sharing the Planet

	• Migration/Globalization • Human Rights • Equality/Ethics Identities • Health/Well-being • Lifestyles Social Organization • Education • The Working World Human Ingenuity • Entertainment
--	---