Thank you for your interest!!
It’s still wip so bear with me.

Before you comm!

I’m still pretty amateurish as an artist, finished pieces may be different from examples and other of my works, I’m learning to get better at it!

Please don’t expect too much from me, there's alot of things I can’t do very well including backgrounds and complex poses/perspectives, do keep that in mind if you order from me.

I don’t mind repeat customers, if you want to get a commission from me again feel free to!

You are free to dm to inquire about comms! Though I would rather keep it mostly business unless there’s something important I need to know about, so don’t attempt to be friends or even rp with me in dms please!!
