

From Paper to Person:
Out of place, place
May 12, 2024

'...for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.'—
Luke 7:7

Jesus has always made space in ____ place for people who feel out of ____.

The Centurion is in a ____ where he knows he is ____ of place.

To be a convert to Judaism you had to:

1. ____ circumcised.
2. Give up ____.

The Centurion didn't put ____ on Jesus, he just asks Him to help. He acknowledges that Jesus is powerful enough to ____ the word and his servant will be ____.

A lot of us ____ believe that Jesus is enough. We believe ____ Jesus but on our ____ terms.

The Centurion says to Jesus, I ____ who you are, and I ____ the power that you have.

Number of times Jesus was 'amazed' in the gospels = ____

1. Your ____
2. ____

Jesus might be surprised when you ____ in Him and ____ might be surprised when Jesus believes in ____.

Inclusion requires an ____.

Invite those around you who you think have __ interest in God because chances are their Gods, have let them ____.

Reflect on these questions this week:

- When was a time you were in a place that you didn't belong? How did you feel? Did anyone help you?
- How might your faith, or lack thereof, amaze Jesus? How could you amaze Jesus with your faith?
- Who do you know who might be an outsider that needs to hear about Jesus? How can we encourage them to come to church?
