Privacy Policy for PageNotes

Effective Date: March 5th, 2024

This Privacy Policy describes how our Chrome extension ("the Extension") collects, uses, and shares information about you when you use the Extension.

Information We Collect

1.1 Note Information: When you create a note using the Extension, we collect and store the note's title, URL, content, and any additional information you provide, such as the author, title, website title, publisher, and publication date for MLA citation purposes. This information is stored locally on your device using Chrome's storage API.

1.2 Chrome Tabs: When you click the "Add Note" button, the Extension accesses the URL of the currently active tab in your Chrome browser. This URL is used to pre-fill the note's URL field for your convenience.

Use of Information

2.1 Note Management: The information collected by the Extension is used solely for the purpose of managing and organizing your notes within the Extension. It allows you to save, view, edit, and delete your notes.

2.2 MLA Citation Generation: The Extension uses the information you provide, such as the author, title, website title, publisher, and publication date, to generate MLA citations for your notes. This feature is provided for your convenience and does not involve any data transmission or sharing.

Data Sharing and Disclosure

3.1 Local Storage: All the information collected by the Extension is stored locally on your device using Chrome's storage API. We do not transmit or share this information with any third parties.

3.2 No Third-Party Access: The Extension does not grant any third parties access to your note information or Chrome tabs. Your data remains solely within the Extension on your device.

Data Security

4.1 Local Storage: The Extension relies on Chrome's storage API to securely store your note information locally on your device. Chrome ensures that the data is stored securely and can only be accessed by the Extension.

4.2 User Responsibility: You are responsible for maintaining the security of your device and ensuring that no unauthorized individuals have access to your Chrome browser or the Extension.

Changes to this Privacy Policy
We reserve the right to update or modify this Privacy Policy at any time. Any changes will be effective immediately upon posting the revised Privacy Policy within the Extension. Your continued use of the Extension after any modifications constitutes your acceptance of the updated Privacy Policy.

Contact Us
