

Hello Parents and Guardians,

I believe one of the most important people in a child's educational experience is their parents and guardians. Your support and interest in your child's education is vital to their success. This year, I will be focusing on partnering with parents to make sure that both you and your student understand the expectations and exciting opportunities to learn, both in and out of the classroom.

There are multiple ways you can stay involved in your students learning:

Portal: Use the portal to look at your student's grades and progress often

Text Messaging: I will text message you about your student's progress if you return the next form.

To conclude, I want to get to know you and your student better so that I can be the best possible instructor for your child. Please answer the survey below about your preferences for being contacted, as well as some information about your student.

Looking forward to working with you,
Ms. Selin
