IDEA: we should write a blog post about how we create transparency and alignment within our organization with our blogging process, where anyone on the whole team can chime in on blog posts

I was telling some friends about our process and how we use github (or used to?) tagging drafts with idea, draft, ready and approved -- I don't see these labels now. I wanted to share our README from this repo, but its private. I would love to have a written reference to our process -- I think other orgs could learn from it, and would help prospective candidates understand how we work.
