

> ABOUT THE FEST

9900 VHS Fest is a multi fan week event. Anyone from any fandom is welcomed and encouraged to participate, as long as their submission centers around an idol that is born from 1999 to 2000. If the submission centers around a relationship or a group of idols, then all idols involved in that dynamic must also be born from 1999 to 2000.

- ★ For example, a fanfiction about the friendship of LOONA's Chuu, NCT's Mark, and SF9's Chani would fit in the fest. Side dynamics, such as Yves as a girlfriend or Jisung as a brother, can involve older or younger members.

"Fan week" refers to the posting period of all the submissions. After the week of anonymous posting, a reveal date will be announced. (Please reference this timeline for more information.)

This event is throwback themed, celebrating the nostalgic media that the 2000's kids grew up on. All submissions should be inspired by any media released from the years 1990 to 2009.

- ★ This refers to anything that was first released, published, etc. within these dates. You can still submit a work inspired by the TV show The Vampire Diaries (which started airing in late 2009) or the 1999 musical Mamma Mia! (despite any runs that occurred after 2009).
- ★ Media can also refer to podcasts/radio, webcomics, or any other kind of art.
- ★ For more examples and inspiration, please feel free to browse this document compilation, or the official fest twitter.

Though there won't be any traditional claiming, there will be a sign up sheet all participants are required to fill out before submitting their work. It will ask for not more than three media inspirations and at least one idol that participants may potentially center their work around. This is to verify whether or not the submission meets the guidelines in advance, as well as to adjust the posting schedule depending on which time periods have the most entries.
