In this 2 hour competition, transform any ballroom into a scene from Westeros. Groups will be split into Noble Family House teams of 5-10 people. House teams will compete against other House teams in an epic contest to see whose Noble Family will claim the Iron Throne and rule all of Westeros. Only by collaboration, trust, and communication will one House team prevail over the others.

The event starts out with a rousing introduction by our professional emcee, and then proceeds into a high-paced series of competitive rounds where everyone will get a chance to participate. Our varied selection of games is sure to engage your teams, and is open to be tailored to fit your personal needs.

"Excellent feedback! People liked the varied activity levels and there were enough team members so if someone was uncomfortable doing something they did not have to. People observing from the building said we looked like we were having a lot of fun. Also, did not matter if you did not understand GoT...the activities were hysterical...especially the horse race..." -Jennifer McCarthy, Novartis
