OINOFILIA

[ˌiːnəˈfɪliə]

OINOFILIA is closed

Epilogue

Thank you for almost 14 challenging years of interest in Oinofilia — importing and presenting handcrafted Greek natural, organic, and biodynamic wines from unique wineries, each full of history and characterised by its own terroir.

I had many dreams and plans to continue in this niche forever. But interest in Greek wine remained low in Scandinavia, given our philosophy and reach — b2b sales focused on the higher-esteemed, primarily New Nordic cuisine-focused restaurants and wine bars, rather than placing wines in supermarkets.

The Greek phrase "πρώτα η υγεία" (prota i ygeia) — "health first" — trumps everything in the end…

Sadly, I had to exit abruptly due to severe health matters, connected to years of stress from putting everything into Oinofilia. As my doctor said: "It is you or Oinofilia." This was not how I had pictured this chapter ending. But I had no choice.

I very much hope Greek wine will finally be embraced in Scandinavia on the same level as in other parts of the world in the years to come.

Best regards,
Maria Warming Brink Tsalapatis