

EdCamp takes the best parts of the conference —the spaces between the scheduled sessions— and makes that the whole conference. Join educators from all over Ohio for a FREE participant-driven day focused on YOUR needs. We even provide a free continental BREAKFAST & LUNCH!

The morning starts with all attendees collaborating to create our sessions board. Then, it's up to you...sit in on multiple sessions, facilitate a discussion, make connections outside of the event, and vote with your feet. No lectures or direct instruction in edcamp sessions, just educators working together to improve teaching & learning.

When professionals have the opportunity to informally interact with one another, they make connections and collaborate on the things that are important to them.
