Course: United States History 1,2		Course # 6701
Credits: 1 credit each semester, 2 credits	Commitment: Two Semester course	Grade: 11
total for the year
A-G Category: meets "A" requirement	Estimated Homework Time: 20-30/night
Level of Difficulty: Moderate	Difficult Very Diff	Very Difficult
Recommended Prerequisite: None

Course Description:

This course begins with a review of important developments in 18th and 19th Century United States history, then moves to an in-depth study of United States history in the 20th Century. Emphasis is on social, economic, and political developments over the past one hundred years. Close scrutiny of the role of the United States in foreign affairs and diplomacy will form an important part of the curriculum, as will all matters related to current events, civic involvement, and citizenship. Also included are significant developments in science, technology, popular culture, social history, economics and capitalism

Recommended Skills:

- Students need to have good reading and writing skills.
- Communication to participate in class and small group discussions