

Conservative MPs against the Brexit deal

34 Conservative MPs voted against the withdrawal agreement on 29 March. Of these, 6 are opposed to Brexit altogether (Guto Bebb, Justine Greening, Dominic Grieve, Sam Gyimah, Jo Johnson, Phillip Lee). The remaining 28:

1. Adam Afriyie*
2. Steve Baker
3. John Baron
4. Peter Bone*
5. Suella Braverman
6. Andrew Bridgen*
7. Bill Cash
8. Christopher Chope
9. James Duddridge
10. Mark Francois
11. Marcus Fysh*
12. Philip Hollobone*
13. Adam Holloway*
14. Ranil Jayawardena*
15. Bernard Jenkin
16. Andrea Jenkyns*
17. David Jones*
18. Julian Lewis*
19. Julia Lopez: don't like it but
20. Craig Mackinlay*
21. Anne Marie Morris
22. Priti Patel
23. Owen Paterson*
24. John Redwood*
25. Laurence Robertson
26. Andrew Rosindell*
27. Lee Rowley
28. Theresa Villiers

Since joined by Richard Drax, who said he regretted voting for the deal and would not do so again.

Highlighted in blue: now ministers in Boris Johnson's government.

Highlighted in green: Conservative Party vice chair.

Highlighted in yellow: backed Johnson's Brexit plan.

*14 of 23 signatories to letter to Telegraph, 18 March declaring they would not switch.

Updated 27 July 2019