

Washington County Family Resources

Mental Health Services

- Washington County Behavioral Health and Developmental Services: Provides mental health services, intellectual disability support, and crisis intervention.
- NAMI Southwestern Pennsylvania: Serves Washington County with support, education, and advocacy for mental health issues.
- Washington County Crisis Hotline: 24/7 hotline: 1-877-225-3567

Food Pantries & Nutrition Support

- Greater Washington County Food Bank: Distributes food to a network of partner agencies, including food pantries and meal programs.
- Washington City Mission: Provides food assistance, shelter, and other services to individuals and families in need.
- Local Churches: Various churches in Washington County operate food pantries.

Social Services & Community Support

- Washington County Assistance Office: Provides public assistance programs, including SNAP, TANF, and Medicaid.
- United Way of Washington County: Offers a variety of social services, including housing assistance, financial stability programs, and educational resources.
- Washington County Children and Youth Services: Provides child welfare services, including protective services, foster care, and adoption.