

Thanks for your interest in becoming a non-driver participant on a Peaks and Professors trip! We're working out some kinks in our payment system and wanted to let you know that you might be shown an error after your payment that looks like the following image:

Don't worry if you see this error; it means your payment has been securely processed!

Pay below to secure your first-come, first-serve spot.
Completing the form multiple times will result in your card being charged multiple times. You'll be receiving an email regarding trip details from a Peaks & Professors lead sometime before your trip, after you've confirmed your spot by paying below:)
