Introduction and Current Issues (members facing rental issues or housing insecurity)
Member	Notes on issue	Plan to resolve
Rowan he/they
Katherine she/her	New rental
Elliot he/him	Lives with parents
Brent he/him	Email, advice to not release bond, disagree with conditions. Under pressure to release bond, told wouldn't be liable for court but is. Wanted him to move out in 3 months. Got bad advice. Has to pay even though he moved out. Potentially facing court, two young kids. Cleaning fee and backpay rent, if releases bond still needs 1300	Recc. seek legal advice (midlas community legal centre) re backpay rent - minor claims
Finn he/him	Living with parents, student org committee

Laura she/he	Living with parents, non-member
V
Nat	Non-member

1.2.2.2.

Old Business

6.1.

7. New Business

7.1. Referrals and Resources; Proposed: Ren

7.1.1. A few cases regarding members facing housing legal issues have exposed somewhat of a void in our ability as a union to support members when the issue is out of our scope. I think it would be a huge benefit to compile a list of approved organisations and services (or individuals) that we can recommend in cases like these. It would be great to form some sort of working relationship with other tenancy orgs.

7.1.2. Nat: Training up delegates (pause on this due to work) - volunteer advocates for before during and after hearing - before and after - during requires a full day

7.1.3. Form 24 - appoint an advocate - committed to every court hearing

7.1.4. Recommendation: RAHU provide support before and after not committed to legal process

7.1.5. CLC - underfunded - information collected by

7.2. Maylands Doorknock; Proposed: Rowan

7.2.1. Finn potentially help, lots of renters
