

Please input your name and your three questions below.

Student Name #1

- 1) What similar challenges did Jobs and The two social entrepreneurs face when creating their product? How did they respond and overcome those challenges?
- 2) What characteristics separated Jobs and the two social entrepreneurs apart? How much of an edge did this give the respective sides?
- 3) What characteristic did you think hindered Jobs' journey the most? According to this, how is being a social entrepreneur possibly better?

Student Name #2

1. What characteristics do you think Steve Jobs and Blake Mycoskie have in common?
2. How do you think the firing of Jobs from Apple help him?
3. Do you believe Jobs work ethic reflected with his treatment of his employees?

Student Name #3

1. Does Steve Jobs have any characteristics of a social entrepreneur? Why or why not?
2. Does Steve Jobs' personality directly correlate with the fact that his company is not a social entrepreneurial business?
3. Based on the colleges Jobs, Mycoskie, and Kopp had attended, do you believe that its level of academia has anything to do with the success of their businesses?

Student Name #4

1. How could you compare/contrast the personality traits of Steve Jobs versus Blake Mycoskie?
2. Do you believe that Job's attitude in business or Blake's attitude was more effective?
3. What do you believe to be a necessary trait in entrepreneurship? Social entrepreneurship?

Student Name #5

1. Who's approach to entrepreneurial ways was most successful and why?
2. Is Job's aggressive approach and tendency to push people away worth the products from the company he created? Are less aggressive approaches typically as successful?
3. What makes a good balance between perseverance and likeability for the founder of a company?

Student Name #6

1. What qualities allowed both Jobs and the social entrepreneurs to succeed even though they had such different intentions and methods?
2. What changes do social entrepreneurs have to make to their marketing strategies as compared to Jobs? How do they cater towards different markets?
3. While social entrepreneurs and normal entrepreneurs have different goals for their companies and what to do with their profits, what do they have in common?

Student Name #7

1. Do you think Jobs's brash personality supported his success, or was it detrimental to his progress?
2. In what ways do social entrepreneurs differ from typical entrepreneurs, such as Jobs? In what ways are they similar?
3. If you were to start your own company, would you be a social entrepreneur, or would you follow the typical entrepreneurship path as Steve Jobs did?

Student Name #8

1. What are the traditional entrepreneurships like Steve Jobs show?
2. Are most entrepreneurs hated or was it just Jobs? Why or Why Not.
3. What traits does Jobs have that differs him from other entrepreneurs?

Student Name #9

- 1) Jobs "stepped on" anyone who was in his way and he did not seem to care. In the end, do you think this was worth his success?
- 2) Jobs said that the whole time the Lisa products was named after his daughter, why do you think he was denying this fact?
- 3) What personality traits did Jobs have that allowed him to be successful despite his harsh personality?

Student Name #10

1. Compare and contrast the qualities of a social entrepreneur to a traditional one?
2. What were the challenges Jobs face when running Apple Co?
3. What challenges did the two social entrepreneurs face and how did it help define their product/service?

Student Name #11

1. What were Jobs` best and worst qualities.
2. How did he overcome his obstacles and ultimately succeed?
3. What businessman does Steve Jobs remind you of?

Student Name #12

1. How did Job's characteristics make him so successful at the end of his career?
2. As an entrepreneur, what traits did job have that might have hindered his career?
3. What similarities do Wendy, Blake, and Steve all have in common? Any major differences?

Student Name #13

1. How did Jobs's traits help/hurt his outcome of the company, Apple?

2. Did Job's childhood have any influence on the success of the company?
3. How do Social Entrepreneurs get their business's to be so successful?

Student Name #14

1. Do you think Jobs' personality helped him in being successful?
2. What is the difference between social and regular entrepreneurship?
3. If you were to start your own company, would you be a social or regular entrepreneur?

Student Name #15

1. How do you think Jobs' family life affected his company?
2. As a social entrepreneur, is stepping out of your comfort zone a good way to start up a company, or a bad way?
3. Do you think entrepreneurs say they want to become a social entrepreneur from the start or does it occur along the journey to growing their company?

Student Name #16

1. Why do you think Jobs lied to his daughter?
2. How come Steve Jobs wanted Sculley to help him?
3. Why didn't Jobs interfere with letting Lisa live with him instead?

Student Name #17

1. Why do you think Steve Jobs decided not to tell his daughter, at the time, that he named the Lisa after her?
2. Why did Steve Jobs drop the Apple Newton?
3. Why did Steve Jobs decide not to mention the Apple II developers?

Student Name #18

1. Do you think Jobs' relationship with his daughter was tough or was he careless about Lisa?
2. Why do you think Jobs lied to his daughter about the name LISA?
3. Why do you think Jobs was harsh on his colleges?

Student Name #19

1. Why do you think Joanna stayed with Jobs?
2. Do you think Jobs is a good person towards other people?
3. How do you feel about Steve Jobs' accomplishments?

Student Name #20

1. How large of a role does adoption really impact on an Entrepreneur who also experienced it?
2. Does Steve Jobs have a tunnel view of how to do business for Apple during the Macintosh Launch and iMac launch?
3. Will there be another Steve Jobs for other businesses that will reach massive success?