

All recruiters who reach out to you with a request for student directory information MUST go through Kyle Underwood or the DRMS request system online.

Schools cannot, and should not, release directory information to recruiters. Please make others in your school aware that may be receiving these requests that all requests need to be redirected to Kyle Underwood.