V. She hated the detention room because it was absolutely devoid of warmth and cheer.

Answer:

Certainly! Here are sentences using the highlighted words:

I. The teacher will not take away your candy, as long as you are considerate and consume it in a discreet manner.

- Sentence: Despite her sweet tooth, Emily was always considerate and consumed her candy in a discreet manner to avoid any trouble with the teacher.

II. Since our team will not make the playoffs this year, the results of the remaining games are pretty much inconsequential.

- Sentence: Knowing that the team wouldn't make the playoffs, the coach decided to give younger players a chance in the remaining games since the outcomes were inconsequential.

III. This political landscape is full of dangers, so a good politician must exercise prudence in their policymaking.

- Sentence: Faced with a turbulent political landscape, the wise leader exercised prudence, carefully considering each policy decision to navigate the challenges effectively.

IV. The teacher was afraid to take the boisterous students into the library. She knew that the gymnasium was a setting that would better match their moods.

- Sentence: Recognizing the students' energetic nature, the teacher hesitated to take them into the library, opting instead for the gymnasium, a setting better suited to their boisterous moods.

V. She hated the detention room because it was absolutely devoid of warmth and cheer.

- Sentence: Sitting in the detention room, Sarah couldn't help but feel miserable as it was absolutely devoid of warmth and cheer, making the punishment even more challenging to endure.

Q.6 Express your agreement as well as disagreement with the following issues. Choose a different expression each time.

- I. Pakistan and India can mutually collaborate with each other to promote peace.
- II. Inflation is the root cause of economic instability.
- III. Physical education should be introduced at the grass root level
- IV. Child abusers should be publically hanged.
- V. Women should be provided ample opportunities to earn their livelihood

Answer:

- I. Pakistan and India can mutually collaborate with each other to promote peace.
  - Agreement: Absolutely, fostering collaboration between Pakistan and India is crucial for promoting peace in the region.
  - Disagreement: While collaboration is essential, it might be challenging given the historical tensions between Pakistan and India.
- II. Inflation is the root cause of economic instability.

- Agreement: I completely agree; inflation often serves as a major contributor to economic instability, affecting various sectors.
- Disagreement: While inflation can contribute to economic challenges, labeling it as the sole root cause oversimplifies the complexities of economic instability.

III. Physical education should be introduced at the grassroots level.

- Agreement: I wholeheartedly support the idea; introducing physical education at the grassroots level is vital for promoting a healthy and active lifestyle.
- Disagreement: Although physical education is important, focusing solely on it at the grassroots level might neglect other crucial aspects of education.

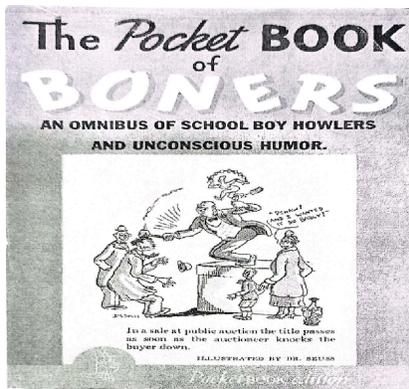

IV. Child abusers should be publicly hanged.

- Agreement: I strongly agree; severe punishment is necessary to deter and condemn such heinous acts against children.
- Disagreement: While child abuse is abhorrent, advocating for public hanging may raise ethical concerns; a fair and just legal process is essential.

V. Women should be provided ample opportunities to earn their livelihood.

- Agreement: Absolutely, providing women with ample opportunities to earn a livelihood is essential for gender equality and societal progress.
- Disagreement: While supporting opportunities for women, it's important to recognize that choices may vary, and emphasis should also be on individual preferences and rights.

Q.8 Suppose one of your cousins is employed in a foreign country. Write a letter of advice so that he may strive hard to promote and strengthen positive image of Pakistan.

Answer:

Dear [Cousin's Name],

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. It brings me joy to hear about your employment in a foreign country, and I am confident that you will excel in your endeavors. As you embark on this professional journey, I would like to share some advice on promoting and strengthening a positive image of Pakistan.

Firstly, always showcase the rich cultural heritage of Pakistan. Share stories about our traditions, festivals, and customs with your colleagues and friends. This will not only help in breaking stereotypes but also foster a deeper understanding of our diverse and vibrant culture.

Secondly, be a responsible ambassador for Pakistan. Your actions and behaviors reflect not only on you but also on our homeland. Embrace and exemplify values such as respect, tolerance, and hospitality, which are deeply ingrained in our culture.

Thirdly, stay informed about current affairs in both Pakistan and the host country. Being knowledgeable about your home country and participating in constructive conversations will allow you to correct misconceptions and present a more accurate picture of Pakistan.

Furthermore, take pride in highlighting the positive contributions of Pakistanis globally. Share success stories of individuals who have excelled in various fields, from science to sports, showcasing the talent and potential that our nation possesses.

Lastly, use social media and other platforms to share positive aspects of Pakistan. Whether it's breathtaking landscapes, charitable initiatives, or cultural achievements, your online presence can contribute significantly to shaping a positive image.

Remember, you are not just representing yourself but also the beautiful country you come from. Your efforts in promoting a positive image of Pakistan will contribute to building bridges of understanding and appreciation. Wishing you all the success and looking forward to hearing about your experiences.

Best regards,
