

Why do you want to work for Well Copy? 🙄 *

You have interesting videos like the one where you tell how you generated 20 million in E-commerce as a College student.

For this type of content, potential course attendees listen to, take examples from, and it leads them to ordering the product.

You're working on raising awareness about yourself, and I know a path where I guarantee you can reach up to 20k views in one video.

By changing the titles of the videos and making slight adjustments of the content, we can position ourselves in a place that interests everyone who wants to succeed in e-commerce.
