What we learned This week:

ELA

- we read about the Olympics and their athletes while working on basic research skills, meanwhile discussing similes & metaphors and also exploring text structure as a preview
- we also reviewed the structure of an opinion essay and looked at our rubric ahead of choosing our topic

Math -(uzzardi)

- we began long division with two digit divisors

Coming up next week:

ELA

- we will begin our final opinion essay

Math- (uzzardi)

- we will continue division with a focus on dividing with 2 digit divisors and decimals
