

Spring Creek Canyon Hike for Monday, May 25 at 8:00 AM

New Promise Hikers have a hike scheduled for Monday, May 25 at 8:00 AM to Spring Creek Canyon just north of the Kolob Section of Zion. Description: This is a slot canyon near the famous

(and very crowded) Kanarraville Falls Canyon. The hike will be roughly 5.5 miles long (round trip) 4-5 hours to complete, depending on how leisurely one goes. This is a moderately difficult hike; rising a little more than 500 feet in the first 2.75 miles upcanyon. There are some bouldering and a small dry fall to traverse, but nothing serious. Bring snacks/lunch and plenty of water. Remember to wear comfortable shoes and dress appropriately for the weather and it is best to use layering to make adjustments as necessary.

If you'd like to go, meet at the Walmart Supercenter parking lot at 625 W Telegraph St. in Washington, Utah at 8:00 AM, in the north corner of the lot along Telegraph Street on Monday, May 25. We will then carpool via Interstate 15 to the Kanarraville exit and continue south of town to the trailhead for the hike. (Folks who live north of St. George can meet us at the Spring Creek Trailhead - please see the map in the following linked hiking document and inform Dana of your choice so we will be looking for you).
