SPEAKER INTRO - BREENIA

JON ROOT BIO.

In September 2015, Jon was hired to be the first-ever in-arena host for the San Jose Barracuda, the American Hockey League affiliate of the San Jose Sharks. Jon served as the hype man/rinkside reporter, interviewing players during intermissions, performing skits with the mascot and promotional contests throughout the game. His unique personality and professionalism led to a promotion on the major professional level faster than almost anyone in the industry.

The San Jose Sharks management took notice of Jon's success and shortly after the NHL All-Star break, he was promoted to in-arena host for the Sharks in his first season with the organization.

Currently, Jon is the digital media/in-arena host for the San Jose Sharks (NHL) and Santa Cruz Warriors (NBA G-League) as well as an accomplished commercial actor.

Jon graduated from Azusa Pacific University where he was a member of the football team and involved with FCA.

Let's give a STRONG, (INSERT SCHOOL NAME HERE) FCA WELCOME to Jon Root!!
