Competition Day Guidelines:

*All students must ride the bus to and from the competitions. If you need to ride with a parent you must receive permission from Coach (Mrs. Dormody) BEFORE the day of the competition. There is a form you must fill out. Friends, family and boy friends/girl friends are not allowed to ride the bus.

*Parents, friends or boyfriends/girl friends are NOT allowed in the homeroom areas. They must stay in the public areas of the competition. Friends, Family & Significant others are invited to come watch our shows and cheer you on! But, competition days are meant to be spent with your team. It's fine to talk with them AFTER your performance. But, your free time should be spent with team mates, not your significant other or your parents.

*Students may bring food from home or purchase concessions. You cannot bring fast food into the competition. No food or drinks (besides water) is allowed in the homerooms. Concessions is a fundraiser for the host school so please be respectful.

*Team members must stay at the event the entire time. If you have a school/family conflict you must receive special permission to leave early from Coach (Mrs. Dormody) ahead of time. There is a form you must fill out.

*All members must change into spirit wear after their performance. Spirit wear consists of black leggings/athletic pants, show shirt (coming soon), guard jacket if you own one and gym shoes. We will be ordering show shirts soon. In the meantime wear an old show shirt or something Round Lake Panthers.
