

Suggested Resources on Spelling to Communicate and Communication Access

ORGANIZATIONS

I-ASC \(International Association for Spelling as Communication\)

Information about the Spelling to Communicate Methodology; based in Herndon, VA

Inside Voice / AALIVE

*On Tuesday, May 10, at 6:15 pm, the practitioners at Inside Voice will host an S2C information session via Zoom. Anyone interested in registering for this can email them at InsideVoiceHQ@gmail.com Inside Voice serves the adult (ages 16+) community.

AALIVE: INSIDE VOICE
PRESENTS

A Spelling to Communicate information session and Q&A with a non-speaker.

Tuesday, May 10, 2022
6:15pm to 7:30 pm
[live via Zoom]

SPELLING TO COMMUNICATE (S2C)

is a teaching method that allows non- and limited-speaking individuals to communicate via the letterboard.

AALIVE.
INSIDE VOICE

For more information and to reserve a spot, please email:
insidevoiceHQ@gmail.com

CommunicationFirst

Nonprofit dedicated to protecting the civil rights of nonspeaking individuals

RESEARCH

<http://www.thinkingautismguide.com/2022/03/an-interview-with-dr-vikram-jaswal.html>

Interview with Dr. Vikram Jaswal at University of Virginia and review of his eye-tracking research

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VXI5Ku23\_pU

Video re: eye-tracking research and Spelling to Communicate

CONTACT US: seenadvocates@gmail.com