

Privacy Policy

for the Social Security Calculator App

JANUARY 28, 2019

The Social Security Calculator App (hereinafter referred to as the “App”) was designed and developed by Denton Kollar (hereinafter referred to as the “Developer”) and is intended for use “as is”. This Privacy Policy is intended to inform users regarding the collection, use, and disclosure of personal user information by the App.

Data Collection

The App does not collect or use any personally identifiable data. Personally identifiable data is data that can be directly associated with a specific person or entity such as a phone number, email address, Social Security Number, etc. The App does require limited non-personally identifiable data such as the user’s Date of Birth and user’s Social Security Benefit Amount at Full Retirement Age in order to perform its intended function. This data is only used within the App and is not shared with or transmitted to any other services. This data, as well as all non-personal user-generated data stored by the App, may be removed from within the App via the user interface or by deleting the App itself.

All other non-personally identifiable data collection that may occur results from the use of Third-Party Services described below. The sole purpose of utilizing Third-Party Services within the App is for enhancing the user experience and not for data collection. Any information collected via Third-Party Services that is available to the Developer is only used for analytic purposes to improve the App, and will not be disclosed in any way by the Developer. Note that such information available to the Developer is non-personally identifiable in nature.

Third-Party Websites

The App may contain links to external, third-party websites such as SSA.gov, Google.com, Facebook.com, and Twitter.com. The App links to third-party websites to provide supplemental information or services which are completely optional. If you access a third-party link, you will be directed to that website. Note that these third-party websites are not operated by the Developer or the App. Therefore, please refer to their own Privacy Policies.

Note that neither the Developer nor the App has control over, or assumes responsibility for the content, privacy policies, or practices of any Third-Party Service.

Privacy Policy Changes

This Privacy Policy may change when the App is updated. Therefore, please review this document for any changes after an update for the App occurs. This page will notify you of any Privacy Policy changes. These changes are effective immediately, once they are posted on this page.

Questions?

If you have any questions about The App's Privacy Policy, please contact the Developer via options listed in the About section of the App.
