Continued study of Object 014 is now my highest concern. The dreams...they have been getting worse. Complex machinery miles high, automatons as far as the eye can see. Yet within the center lies what seems to be a child of both flesh and machine. Martha says it's because I spend too much time within my workshop, studying mundane items. If only she knew the truth of what I had uncovered. The world needs to know about the anomalous discoveries I have made; I just need to conduct more research.

Brody “Arcade” Cooper

Documentation concerning his time within the United Nations Global Occult Coalition is scarce for Foundation Personnel due to custody of the majority being held by the UNGOC.

Therefore, most Foundation personnel don’t consider Brody to have been a UNGOC Operative despite his persistence on the matter.

Nevertheless, the few documents that have made their way into Foundation custody are able to confirm that an Operative under the codename “Arcade” was operating within the 225th UNGOC FOB as recently as ■■■ years ago.

Exactly what Brody did during his time within the UNGOC is vague as stated with the lack of documentation. However, excerpts stated from Brody state that he did Operations ranging from R&D to [REDACTED].

Weaknesses / Counter-Measures Photographs of LTE-2716-Kapala-Ex-Machina are to be kept on commanding officers in the general FOB of "Arcade" in case of acts of aggression towards GOC Operatives. When a photograph is shown, "Arcade" has shown to immediately stop any and all aggressive actions and stare blankly at the photograph for around 4 seconds then immediately break down crying. "Arcade" is to then return to bunks and not be disturbed for around 15 minutes. 12. Anomalous Background Records have stated that on 3/5/2011 that "Arcade" was gifted his anomalous capabilities via a ritual done by Ford operatives. "Arcade" has little to no memory of the ritual due to the age at which the ritual was done and due to potential self suppression. The ritual, named "██████████" is an ancient ritual that dates back to the ██████████ empire around 1200 BCE. The exact process of the ritual is unknown to UNGOC Operatives but has been theorized to be a ritual in which ██████████ ██████████ In the case of "Arcade" the ritual was not fully completed and "Arcade" now has a semi-connection to ██████████. As a result, it allowed "Arcade" to become a Type-Green-Red however, the nature of the ritual has resulted with "Arcade" having severe mental scarring and a profound aversion to ██████████.

Brody Cooper

Following discharge from the UNGOC, the SCP Foundation offered a position within the Research Department. Despite obvious hesitation, he accepted the position and was assigned to the Department of [REDACTED]. With the knowledge he had gained from the UNGOC, he quickly proved a notable asset within the department, having experience rivaling that of the director.

ADDENDUM #2

It is noted that around this time Brody began to display discrepancies in behavior. Such behavioral changes have included and are not limited to:

- Increased levels of Anxiety
- Sudden and abrupt changes in mood
- Episodes of Depression
- Mental Breakdowns
- Discomfort around mechanical items

Reasons behind these sudden changes were unknown until the occurrence of Incident RX87.

Incident RX87

On 0■■/■■■/20■■■, Brody would begin to exhibit signs of severe mental and physical distress on a level that was above previous events. When taken to the Medical Center, he began to exhibit rash and mildly aggressive behavior, attempting to force medical personnel away and at some points attempting to run out of the Medical Center.

These behaviors became much more rash and violent after the introduction of a mechanical watch was noted, resulting in minor physical violence and a rash amount of screaming.

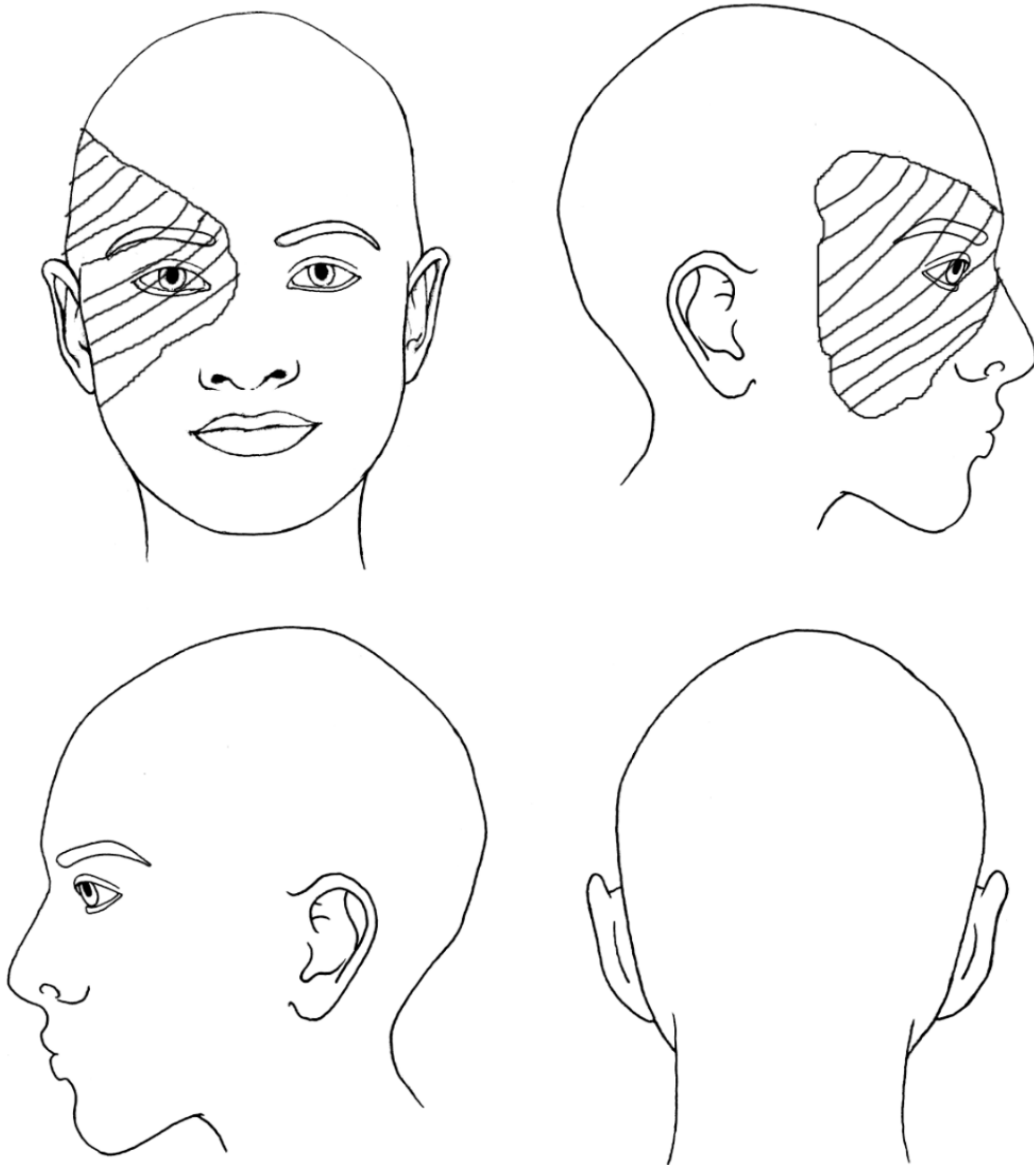

Sedatives were administered but were observed to have little to no effect on Brody, which resulted in more sedatives being administered, which again led to similar results.

It was noted that after the administration of experimental sedative X7-B6, the sedative finally began to take hold, and Brody soon fell unconscious 2 minutes later. It was noted that after he fell unconscious, members of the medical staff began to hear a ticking noise that seemed to be originating from Brody himself. Concerned if Brody was [REDACTED], Brody was placed under quarantine and monitored for a span of 2 hours before the sedatives wore off and he regained consciousness.

The fact that he's still alive is nothing short of a miracle. His body seems to be handling the transforming better than expected. Not much can be said about the physiological trauma however.

His body is now comprised of around █████% clockwork, normally this would be considered a very clear sign of SCP-217 Infection. However, samples taken have shown no active signs of the SCP-217 Virus. Our course of action would be to monitor to Ensure that there's no sign of the virus within his body for around 2 weeks. After that it could be proposed that he would be allowed to return to his standard duties.

However, physiological screening would be required to ensure that he is mentally sound.

Dr. ██████████

"I want it to be noted that what occurred within that section of the Medical Center is best left redacted. His transformation was nothing short of one of the most horrifying things I have ever witnessed during my time with the Foundation, and all personnel that requested Amnestics were approved."
