

Declaration of Interdependence

We freely declare [Company Name] as a Faith Corporation—a spiritually driven company dedicated to advancing a Christ-centered mission to all stakeholders and employees.

As Faith Corporations and Christian leaders within this economic zone:

- This company is dedicated to Jesus Christ and His Church, to love God and neighbors — so that we may be His people, and He our God.
- We seek to assist the Church’s missionary mission of making disciples of all nations by bringing Jesus to workers, partners, and customers.
- We aim to establish a Christian Space that protects missionaries’ freedom and spreads the Good News without proselytization—avoiding coercion, discrimination, or undue pressure.
- We believe excess funds should be used immediately for good, with priority given to the most vulnerable. As Scripture says: “No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”
- We will operate this business in accordance with Catholic values and ethics, without compromise.

To live this out, we commit to praying for one another and acting with clarity, knowing we are both dependent on and responsible for each other in advancing the Kingdom of God.
