

BookHub & Free Holiday Send Off Books - 12/10/20 Update

Hey, St. Joe Bears!

Let's make sure you are heading into winter break with new books!

We will hold another book drive-through next week for new library book checkouts AND for distribution of our free Holiday Send Off books.

New Book Drive-through Days

Wednesday AND Thursday, December 16 and 17

5:00-6:00pm @ UMS front entrance

- For BookHub library books - Submit your checkout requests using Destiny Discover and the UMS BookHub request form. To secure your book request(s), please submit the form by midnight on Monday, 12/14. (As always, we are happy to take back any and all completed library books; make sure you bring them!)
- For the free Holiday Send Off books - Students, watch your email for confirmation that the books you previously requested are here. We are still waiting on a few titles to arrive. If they continue to get held up in holiday shipping traffic, we will contact you directly.

Want to know what's new and fresh in the library?
Check out these titles -- most added just this week!

If you have questions, please email

Happy Reading and Go Bears!
