

5Call for Student Mobility to the University of Cordoba, Spain

The UCO is heir to a centuries-old historical and cultural legacy as well as a passion for knowledge, tolerance, international renown, and harmony among civilizations that have made the city that houses our institution a paradigm for humanity. This equilibrium and harmony is reflected in the three areas in which the UCO undertakes its activities: Food and Agriculture and Science and Technology; Humanities and the Legal and Social Sciences; and the Health Sciences; each with its own special characteristics. This balance is also manifested in quality teaching and research, ranking it among the top academic institutions in Spain.
