

Willy Toledo gets to fight

It is said that offends no one wants, but who can, but the truth is that it costs a deaf ear to pour some expletives. The rundown an actor Willy Toledo while part of that circle of non smoker characters who are eager to fuss at every moment. In his Facebook account has been dispatched to taste with Orlando Ortega, the Cuban-born hurdler who made silver to Spain. And he scored on his profile "worm and miserable." What was his sin? Apparently, Orlando Ortega -nacionalizado Spanish- once he sprinted and won the silver medal in the audience sought a Spanish flag to be with her lap of honor. By way they were offering Cuban flags he logically rejected, until finally it became a Spanish flag. A Willy Toledo, who lives in Cuba, and that is that the Castro Castro, gesture athlete has seemed reprehensible. And hence the inks loaded against him. If this had been an isolated tantrum Willy Toledo, he is given "mus" and something else. But this benighted activist walks always stuck in the mud of the discussion. Their continued attacks against any person or institution that does not agree with the regime defending make you look a fool. Should let them look.
