	feedback information to relevant focus/writing groups where required. Marina is worried that the questionnaire is too long for 11 year olds, as it is very difficult for Armenian children to complete the survey in time; others agreed that it could be shorter. This question should be raised in future ICC meetings. The zone agreed that it is too early for new ideas/topics/questionnaire items for the next survey.
4. Zone publications	Zone publications <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ongoing/potential Zone publications • Potential opportunities for optional package collaboration and publications (please note selections are indicative only and subject to change as it is based on information provided during translations). Kastytis will send the first draft of the joint publication on oral health next week. Iveta joined the authors' team and will contribute to the introduction and discussion parts. The participants discussed the possibility of composing joint paper also on COVID-19 topic, but this might be problematic, as the data collection times among Zone E countries are too different.
5. Any Other Business and next steps	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Any ideas/comments around the International Report and 40th anniversary. • Share any relevant opportunities with your Zone colleagues, for example, potential funding sources and conferences. • Summary, actions and photo! The zone discussed some ideas on the 40th anniversary regarding youth involvement, e.g. involve local or European adolescents, include influencers/bloggers via Zoom, a short movie involving young people from different countries, give attention to Ukrainian kids. There should be a special section concentrating on adolescents in the context of war to raise awareness of the problem.
