How do you define homelessness? Is it simply a lack of housing, or are there other factors involved?

What are the main causes of homelessness? Are there systemic issues or individual factors contributing to homelessness?

What are the consequences of homelessness for individuals and society? How does homelessness affect health, safety, and well-being?

What is the Housing First approach to addressing homelessness? How does it differ from traditional approaches?

How does mental illness contribute to homelessness? What are the challenges in providing mental health services to homeless individuals?

What is the relationship between substance abuse and homelessness? How can we address addiction among homeless populations?

What role should governments play in addressing homelessness? What policies and programs can help reduce homelessness?

How do non-profit organizations contribute to addressing homelessness? What services do they provide?

How does public perception of homelessness affect policy and public support? How can we challenge stereotypes and promote empathy?

What are the challenges and opportunities in addressing homelessness in the future? How can we work towards a society where everyone has a safe and stable home?