

Howdy y'all! This is a little document to help y'all understand what each reward entails, and the various details.

TOS:

1. I have the right to refuse any character
 - a. I am unfortunately not as well versed as other artists, so I am working off a pre-made pattern. Any details that I deem are too complex, or would require an extreme amount of prototyping, mean that I will request a different character. If you are unable to provide a character that is simple enough to meet the criteria within 96 hours of winning, the raffle win will be revoked, and another person will be chosen.
 - b. In addition, my work is primarily SFW. Any request for explicit genitals will be refused. E.G. boobs are OK, boobs with nipples are not.
2. Winners will pay shipping.
 - a. In order to accommodate people from outside the US, the donation goals will not include shipping. I live near San Francisco, California, so please consider shipping costs as such.
3. Materials Will Be At My Discretion
 - a. For purposes of simplicity, I will use Big Z Fabrics for the minky I use. I already have access to many of their colors, but for ones I don't have in stock, I will order them. I will not, however, order whatever fabric you want for the plushie. If you prefer a different material, accommodation will be at my discretion.
4. Winners do not get to apply to the subsequent raffles
 - a. If you win a raffle, you will not be able to get another entry in subsequent raffles.

Raffle TOS:

- Commenting the phrase in the chat, "Ham n Cheese Quiche" will grant you an entry to the raffle. This can only be used once.
- For every person who also comments the aforementioned phrase, and says they joined due to you, you will receive an additional two entries, and they will receive an additional entry. This can be done as many times as possible.
- For every interval of donation at and above £25 (e.g. £25, £50, £75) you will gain an additional entry.
- The raffle winners will be selected at the Middle and End of the stream. If you win, you will be reached out to via Discord, or whatever method you prefer. Please state your preferred method in the chat, so we know how to best reach out to you.
- Attempting to game the system, or if we find that you misled us in order to increase your chance of winning, will result in a disqualification. If you won due to these means, your win will be revoked, and given to someone else.

Sorry, just want to make these details explicit! Onto the pricing/detailing schema!
