

Cobalt-Verse Quest

Chapter 0: The Beginning

Quintuplets born, the throne awaits on a planet of Mobian Hedgehogs in an alternate dimension called The Cobalt Cosmics. This is Planet Neovita, the home planet of the Mobian Hedgehogs that was run by former King Buran who had sadly died from illness. Buran's son Sammy Maximus has since then been given ownership to be Planet Neovita's new king later marrying a hedgehog named Anne Gracie later being named to Anne Maximus by marriage with Sammy and would eventually become Planet Neovita's queen. The first kid they had was Cobalt Maximus born on June 2nd. While they did give him this name they would then give him the name Milo The Hedgehog as they wanted him to keep the name a secret and only people he trusts could know it. As the little blue hedgehog grew up, he would eventually become crowned Prince of Planet Neovita. He also wanted to be a musician and start his own as he loved to watch rock music and pretend to play a guitar and sing. He would eventually learn this from his Uncle Ezra who is the young brother of Sammy and he was also a rockstar who ran his own band. After learning and passing Erza's lessons. He would then give him a green necklace medallion that he can use as a weapon which he can play and shoot beams with, making Milo really proud of himself. As years went by, his siblings Marcus (Born: June 4th), Isla (Born April 3rd), Erica (Born February 20th), and Cora (Born November 3rd) came to be. When each and one of them were born, Milo had the idea to teach them to be musicians like him so as time went on they were successful and Milo tells Uncle Erza about this and lets his siblings show off their musical talents making him impressed and receiving a necklace of their own. And this is where it leads to the Hedgehog Fortress becoming born. When Milo and his siblings grew up Milo had the idea to start his own rock band with his siblings in which they liked the idea Marcus on the other hand was feeling nervous and shy about it but Milo cheers him up thinking that he can do it which did make him shy some more but decided to go along with it. Isla and Cora loved the idea but Erica felt like it was gonna suck and didn't want to be involved but the siblings pleaded with her to join and did so anyway. The siblings practiced and practiced their band by performing songs and more until they were ready. The hedgehogs perform at their first concert towards the audience the hedgehog fortress' band has Milo as the lead guitarist and singer, Marcus as the drummer, Isla as the keyboardist, Erica as the back guitarist and Cora as the bassist. After performing their first song this led the audience to cheer and clap for them praising the performance of them making the hedgehogs happy and take a bow for their first performance. However at this time a certain pink hawk girl witnessed this feeling jealous of the hedgehog's performance. Her name is Chantal, she is a self-proclaimed rockstar who bullied Milo during their years in school over his talent of music. This all started during elementary school when Milo was showing off his talent of being a guitarist and singer, although the teacher loved it the kids poked fun of him making him really upset until Chantal comes making her move to be a guitarist and singer making the kids love her more than Milo leaving the poor little hedgehog without a support system however the teacher did seem to feel bad. And throughout the years, Chantal would pick on Milo for their years in school and even give him the name guitar-zero as Middle School came, during lunch period Milo at this time was depressed without nobody to show his talent until an orange cat and red hedgehog came up to him asking him why he's upset and he tells them about how he was being bullied by Chantal making them feel sorry for him and give the little hedgehog some comfort. The cat and hedgehog go by the names Claude and James in which the three get along just fine and become friends to the end. Throughout the time Milo had made some other friends like a blue fox named Marvin whom he saved from bullies, Stuart a plumber worker which they met during their years of college, a blue pac-person named Remie after giving him a hand to fight a ghost, Arian a dog who became rapper in which he helped perform a song with him, and a humanoid Skeleton named Tristan in they met in college along with Stuart and Marcus The latter becomes friends with the skeleton. King Sammy and Queen Anne to this very day remain loyal to their Hedgehog friends on Planet Neovita with their crowned Prince Colbalt Maximus or Milo The Hedgehog. Apparently, his parents tell him that he can't reveal that his real first name is Colbalt and has to remain a secret which Milo accepts and only his family and trustworthy friends could. Despite this Milo and his siblings still take up lead to perform for people on Earth with their band The Hedgehog Fortress. The King and Queen also taught their kids how to be fighters and give them their own weapons, power tools and accessories to use on journeys they go onto. Before the Maximus siblings were born. A certain scientist who goes by the name Jordan Calvin worked as a scientist making experiments and such which became successful. Unfortunately, this got him into a lot of trouble after murdering many people with his experiments. This made him not care and felt like it was fun so he does this only to get him reported on the news and get him sent to jail and pay millions of dollars for the damage he has done. During his arrest, his former friend Chris Gartner a hedgehog who worked as a scientist had decided to end his friendship with him only to get really angry and go on a rampage to destroy everything around jail and goes as far as to attempt murder on Gartner only to get him sent to court and everyone explains the things he has done and was called out to being guilty and thus this lead to his death by being executed in the electric chair and since then, Jordan Calvin was never seen or heard of again. Years later, awakened in Hell Jordan has eventually awoken as a spirit, finding this out made him really enraged and decided to get revenge on the whole world including to murder his former friend Chris. This also led to his hatred of hedgehogs so he would eventually make his own dungeon and invent his own machines and more, including a camera to watch anything he sees around the world. He would then activate the camera and send various copies of them to watch all around the world without being seen. Calvin begins to look through the cameras searching what he could find but then all of sudden he sees that one camera managed to get into space and find the Mobian hedgehog's planet which annoyed him to the fact it reminded him of Chris but looking closely he sees Milo himself. He does his research all about him, getting the idea to capture the hedgehog and use him for a ritual spell. Later on Jordan would create his own book of spells and featured many spells he could use on Milo and even use some on himself to give him the power for revenge. He makes a ritual to make an army of demons which ends up working and has a whole army of demons he could use. This has also led him to the idea to create new setups and get a chance to capture the hedgehog for his ritual and he also had the plan to not only destroy the entire world but destroy his family and friends, including his whole planet. And this is where it leads to the beginning of a big adventure for Milo and gang.
