

WA Teaching and Learning Forum
2nd- 3rd February 2023
Murdoch University

SESSIONAL STAFF GRANTS

The WATLF Committee has a limited number of grants available to enable sessional staff across our universities to attend the 2023 WA Teaching and Learning Forum, University Life: Being, Becoming and Belonging.

We now invite sessional staff to apply for one of these grants.

What is the grant for?

The grant provides successful winners with single-day registration to the Forum. Registration includes full day attendance to the Forum, catering and attendance to the Belonging Sundowner at the end of the day.

Who is eligible?

Sessional staff at any of the five Western Australian universities who can provide evidence of a 2022 or 2023 contract are eligible.

Conditions/ Criteria

To be considered for this grant, applicants must complete the application template that is available on the Registration section of the WATLF2023 web page. The Template requires:

- A brief list of your core sessional work (e.g. units taught) in 2022
- Justification of your interest in the Forum
- Verification of your sessional staff status from your supervisor
- A copy of university staff ID and 2022 or 2023 sessional contract.

Submission

- Prepare your application on the Template available in the Registration section of the website.
- Submit your application by email to info@wateachingandlearningforum.org now due 9th November 2022
- Submit all documents electronically, including attachments
- Submission after the deadline will not be considered.

There is a limited select number of available grants so we encourage you to apply early. Preference will be given to those who are presenting at the Forum. If interested, see the website for information about Presentation Proposals (also due on Wednesday 9th November 2022).

More information about the WATLF 2023 can be found on the WATLF website.

The WATLF 2023 Committee

WATLF2023 is hosted by Murdoch University, and is a joint initiative of Curtin University, Edith Cowan University, Murdoch University, The University of Notre Dame and The University of Western Australia.